The counselling centre

Life presents many challenges for those with disabilities and their families. There are numerous questions to be answered and you are required to make important decisions.

For example, with regards to support, school attendance and work, leisure activities and living, as well as respite services and financial help.

The consultation centre offers support for all persons with disabilities and their relatives in the district of Göppingen. Our personal consultation is orientated towards your concerns. We are your point of contact in all stages of life for any questions regarding disability and participation.

It goes without saying that your concerns will be handled confidentially. We offer you uncomplicated advice and support without the bureaucracy.

Get in touch with us – we look forward to hearing from you

Advisory services are free of charge for members of Lebenshilfe Göppingen.
